

Alejandra Osorio ✦

Product Designer ✦

I am an integral product designer who bridges user-centered innovation with strategic thinking and cross-functional leadership. With a track record of shipping end-to-end digital products, from discovery to pixel-perfect execution. I thrive in complex environments where design, data, and business goals converge. I have shaped experiences for e-commerce, digital media, and B2B SaaS platforms.

👤 Experience

Senior Product Designer

Twilio, Jun 2024 - Present

Led end-to-end product design for a customer intelligence suite focused on monitoring and troubleshooting SMS and email messages sent via Twilio's APIs. Delivered a cohesive package of products now used by over 35,000 daily active users. Drove product discovery, defined UX strategy, and collaborated across engineering, data, and product teams to ship high-impact solutions at scale.

Senior Product Designer

Benchmark Email, Nov 2023 - Jun 2024

Owned end-to-end product design — from discovery and strategy to pixel-perfect UI execution — for an enterprise-grade mass email sending platform. Partnered closely with an interdisciplinary team to align business goals, user needs, and technical constraints, delivering scalable workflows that elevated the product experience for marketing teams.

Senior Product Designer

Zubale, November 2021 -Nov 2023

Led the design team on product definition, user testing, user flows, and iterative mockup designs. Managed pixel-perfect handoffs and collaborated closely with developers. Led product strategy and problem-framing workshops with stakeholders.

SSr Product Designer

Mercado Libre, April 2021 - November 2021

Product definition, user testing, user flows, and mockup designs through an iterative process. Pixel-perfect handoffs and checks with developers.

Product Designer

Merqueo, April 2019 - April 2021

Product design through agile methodologies, user research, business needs analysis, and mockup designs ready for development.

UX Designer

El Tiempo Casa Editorial, March 2018 - March 2019

Qualitative and quantitative research, strategy development, and product definition through information architecture, flows, and wireframes.
